Mother Geraldine CAMPBELL

Geraldine LaDale Campbell was born in San Antonio, Texas to Elder and Mrs. Joe Seal Quinn on September 9, 1933. At the age of eleven the family moved to San Francisco, California and Geraldine continued her education. On July 4, 1950, while a senior in high school, Geraldine gave her life to the Lord, and was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost. She graduated from high school and later married minister Lavoughn Johnnie Campbell on November 24, 1951. Born to this union were nine children.

God birthed in the heart of Geraldine the ministry of prayer. She immediately began prayer services. And as a result of the Holy Ghost working in her life, people were saved, healed, delivered and set free. In 1956, Geraldine's husband minister Campbell, was elevated to Elder, and became the pastor of the Menlo Park Community Church.

In 1957, Geraldine began working at the United States Postal Service where she worked 15 years then she was promoted from a postal clerk to secretary to the Director of Postal Service Administration. The promotions allowed Geraldine to embrace additional educational opportunities offered by the government. September 1962, the Campbell family moved to Menlo Park, California and Geraldine began to serve in the San Jose district of Northern California First continuing her spiritual gifts of prayer and service unto the Lord. By 1970, she was appointed as District Missionary of the San Jose District, under the late Bishop Milton Mathis.

May 5, 1973, District Missionary Campbell heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Go into my vineyard and work, and whatsoever is right, I will pay." She immediately began the infamous noonday prayer services at the Menlo Park Community Church, Monday through Friday. The ministry grew and the works of her hands gained notoriety as she prayed for families all around her church, her community, but most importantly in her home. Through her years of service unto the Lord, she also experienced the trials of life; For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required, Luke 12:48.

Her Story

June 1974, one of the most traumatic events occurred when the family home was destroyed by fire. Every earthly possession was taken, but District Missionary Campbell still had joy. Her faith was elevated to new heights and God proved himself to her and restored everything that was lost. Yet, the restoration of possessions did not preclude her from experiencing misfortunes that came along with a large family and a divine calling. Through it all District Missionary Campbell was determined to experience the power of the Lord in her own family believing that charity starts at home I Timothy 5:8. She prayed all of her children to the Lord and through their trials, she kept God first and believed His Word, Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, and those who are the called according to his purpose. Through the miracles of God all around her and her family, she found time to remain faithful to God and further her education. In 1982 she graduated from C.H. Mason Bible College and earned a Teachers Certificate, an AA Degree in Biblical Education, then her BA Degree in Biblical Studies. Continuing in the faith, she enrolled in the Evangelical Training Association and earned: Certificates in Foundational Church Ministries, Standard Church Ministries and Advance Church Ministries and through this experience she became a mother in Zion. The awards and recognition flooded her life as her works spoke for her in the church and her community.

To name a few:

Assistant Supervisor Outstanding Work Award: Northern California First Jurisdiction

Church Community and Family Services Award: Mayor Billy Ray White, City of Menlo Park

The Matriarch of the City: City of Menlo Park, Mayor Jen Wolosin

Proclamations from State Assembly 24th District, Assemblyman Mark Berman.

God blessed Mother Geraldine Campbell to receive promotions that she declared to come only from above: In California Northern First Jurisdiction, under the Supervisor of Women, Mother Deavers, she served as District Missionary of San Jose district, and later appointed Jurisdictional Finance Secretary for the department of women, under Supervisor Georgina Smith. She worked her hands to the bone, being faithful to every call and giving of her service and her substance declaring "its happy time" when she put forth the effort to give while encouraging others to do the same.

In 1993, yet another promotion to 1st Administrative Assistant to Jurisdictional Supervisor Richardine Hunt under the leadership of Bishop Albert Galbraith. In March 2018, Mother Campbell was appointed Jurisdictional Supervisor of Women for the California Northern First Jurisdiction until her passing on February 14, 2024, Valentine's Day.

Mother Geraldine Campbell leaves to mourn, her children: Lydia J Campbell, Lavoughn Johnny Campbell Jr., Marcella Ann Holmes, Delphine Campbell, Rosa Jones (Lee), Marcus Campbell (Monica), and Zerubbabel Campbell. Preceding her in death: Her husband, Pastor Lavoughn Johnnie Campbell, her sons, Kenneth L. Campbell, and Melvin J. Campbell and daughter Anovia Campbell (Vernon). Her siblings, Walter P. Quinn, Barbara Boykins (Frank), William P. Quinn (Mary), Ruby Jane Quinn. Her siblings preceded her in death, Ocell Chilton, Katheryn Reddicks, Josephine Coleman and Monroe Quinn.
